

Juan Carlos León Agüero
Finance and Strategy Director and Partner,
DICOMA CORPORACIÓN

Juan Carlos is a distinguished business leader whose expertise spans finance, strategy, and engineering. With an impressive academic portfolio, he holds a Master's in Big Data from ESDEN Business School in Spain, an MBA from ESAN in Peru, and a Master of Science from Scuola Superiore Studi Pavia in Italy, a Master's in International Business from EGADE Business School in México, alongside a Bachelor's in Civil Engineering from Universidad Latina de Costa Rica.

As the Finance and Strategy Director and Partner at DICOMA CORPORACIÓN, Juan Carlos has been pivotal in driving the company's significant growth. His innovative implementation of Robotic Process Automation (RPA) has notably enhanced operational efficiency, earning DICOMA the accolade of Best Supplier for Walmart Central America in 2021.

Juan Carlos has also made his mark in project management and sales consulting during his tenure at HOLCIM. His adeptness in negotiating and handling multiple projects earned him the Customer Service Award for exceptional performance.

In addition to his professional achievements, Juan Carlos has authored publications in the fields of business and engineering. He is proficient in both Spanish and English and dedicates time to various professional associations. Based in San José, Costa Rica, Juan Carlos cherishes family life while continuing to impact the business and education worlds with his forward-thinking approach.